APPLICATION FOR A GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP

ALL APPLICATION MATERIALS ARE DUE BY FEBRUARY 15TH.

I wish to apply for a GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIP with the ON-CAMPUS Master of Public Health program. I understand that only ON-CAMPUS graduate students are eligible for the graduate assistantships.

I understand the following:

1. If I am awarded a graduate assistantship, this will make me eligible for in-state tuition even if I am classified as an out-of-state student.
2. I can be awarded either a 10-hour per week assistantship or a 20-hour per week assistantship, dependent on my interest and availability, and also upon the availability of departmental funds and need. A stipend is paid for each graduate assistantship, and the rate is determined by the NMSU graduate school.
3. Graduate assistantships are awarded one semester at a time. The renewal of graduate assistantships are dependent on my job performance, faculty recommendation, a satisfactory evaluation by the academic department head at the end of each semester, and the continued availability of departmental funds.
4. The Department of Public Health Sciences is under no obligation to continue my graduate assistantship for successive semesters.
5. The maximum length of time that graduate assistantships can be received is typically 2-years.
6. All new graduate assistants are required to attend (in-person) a graduate assistantship orientation at the New Mexico State University campus in Las Cruces, date and time to be specified.
